Wood Buffalo residents invited to Virtual Cookery Showcase

Multicultural Association celebrates Alberta Culture Days with a Virtual World “Eats” in Wood Buffalo showcase.

Fort McMurray, AB/ September 24, 2021 – In acknowledgement of Alberta Culture Days, the Multicultural Association of Wood Buffalo (MCA) will be showcasing locally filmed videos featuring various cultural cuisines from around the world.

The showcase, “World Eats in Wood Buffalo,” will take place from September 27 to 30. Each day will feature a video highlighting cuisine from different traditions, including Métis, India, Ukraine, Pakistan and Morocco. At the end of the week, recipes will be posted in an online album on the MCA Facebook page. The videos will be accessible on the MCA Facebook (@mca4wb) and YouTube channel at bit.ly/mcawb-YouTube.

In addition to World Eats in Wood Buffalo, MCA will also be hosting a Multicultural Culinary Trivia giveaway to complement the cookery showcase. Each day, from September 27 to 30, two trivia questions related to cultural cuisine will be posted. Participants who correctly guess the answer to the trivia questions will get the chance to win a copy of “McMurray Métis – Kokum’s Cookbook: Volume 1”. Two winners will be drawn each day, with a total of eight chances to win. This giveaway will take place on the MCA Facebook page, with winners announced at the end of the week.

Alberta Culture Days occurs annually during the month of September to showcase, celebrate, educate, and experience arts and culture through local events and activities in person or online throughout the province.
